with the Gerard Trust Bank, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, for the sum of $5,920.

Records of the District Court, Eastern District of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, disclose that Mr. Feldman's mother, Bella Feldman, and [redacted] were indicted in September, 1959, for mail fraud in connection with a bankruptcy claim. Both pleaded guilty and were fined $1,000 and placed on five years' probation. Probation was dismissed September, 1962.

b6 PER FBI
b7C

Records of the United States District Court for the District of Columbia, Washington, D. C., disclose that Mr. Feldman's mother-in-law, Gisella Moskovitz, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, sued Mr. Feldman and his wife, [redacted] in May, 1961, for severe injuries received when she fell while in their home. The court action in this matter was dismissed in October, 1964.

These records also disclose that [redacted] Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, sued Mr. Feldman in April, 1961, for $1,024.56 resulting from Mr. Feldman's failure to pay tuition charges for his two children, who attended a camp in 1960. The court action in this matter was dismissed in October, 1961.

Agency Checks

Information has been received from the following governmental agencies indicating that their files contain either no record or no additional pertinent information concerning Mr. Feldman:

House Committee on Un-American Activities;
Office of Special Investigations, Department of the Air Force; the Central Intelligence Agency; and the Bureau of Personnel Investigations, Civil Service Commission.

There is attached a summary memorandum concerning Mr. Feldman, Counsel to the President. The investigation was generally favorable, however, he has been sued twice; once by his mother-in-law for injuries received when she fell in Feldman's home and once for failure to pay tuition charges in the amount of $1,024.56 for his two children at a summer camp. Both suits were dismissed.

OBSERVATION:

It is not possible to determine from the limited information furnished by IRS whether or not a possible bribery case might be involved in connection with Feldman's receipt of an automobile at no cost. Since there is this possibility, it is felt that Bureau Liaison should explore this with IRS in order that it can be fully resolved.
